Lynn's Corner

Hi everyone,

Whew, May was one crazy month! I had planned to have an article for this month featuring a Q&A with dressage judges, but with all the shows and lessons and stuff going on in May, I didn't get it done. My apologies – but keep an eye out in the July issue, I promise to have it done by then!

It's been fun seeing many of you out and about at the shows, we've had some good competitions already this year and despite all the rain, the weather held out for the show days. A few things I saw out there made me want to remind everyone about sportsmanship and the importance of being gracious both in victory and defeat. A kind word after a bad ride can mean a lot – nastiness only makes you look bad. And don't forget to be patient and appreciative with ALL volunteers – they're giving up their valuable time to enable you to be showing, and it may be their first time at a show so give them a break if they're learning on the job. Again, kindness goes a long way to someone who may be overwhelmed or stressed out!

Happy showing!

Lynn

Save on Sanctioning!

If you are the organizer of more than two competitions in a sanctioning year, MSEDA would like to offer a discount to help offset the cost of sanctioning. In order to take advantage of this opportunity, ALL sanctioning applications must be sent in together with basic information. Updates on officials and COI should be received in a timely manner with regard to each show date. You will pay the regular rate for the first two competitions and each competition after that will be discounted by $10.00. Don't forget… all applications must be sent in together to be eligible for the discount. Please contact Amy Miller at 859-358-3601 or madisonridgefarm@bellsouth.net for questions.
